Trafalgar Flower Garden

Pick your own flowers

Trafalgar Flower Garden is a historic walled garden and the former kitchen garden to Trafalgar House. It's nestled at the southerly end of the farm. From March to October we are open on a Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoon for people to pick their own flowers. The season starts with our beautiful British tulips, daffodils, anenomes and peonies. In mid summer there are alliums, sweet peas, gypsophila, scabious, roses, delphiniums, zinnias, daylias, and the most stunning variation of sunflowers providing vibrant colour right through to the end of October

Trafalgar Gardens Cottages

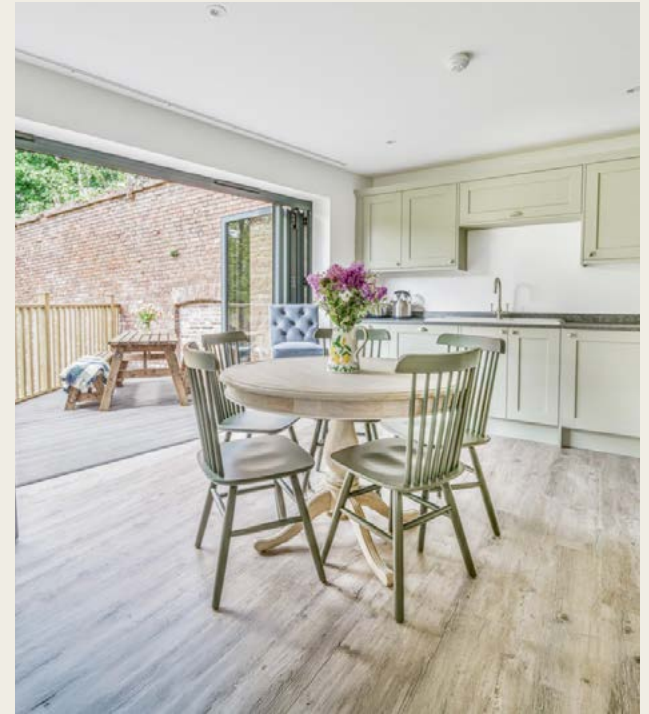

Holiday cottages

The Orangery and The Potting Shed are two newly built and beautifully finished holiday homes, sleeping four and five guests, or nine when booked together. Approached along a private track, they sit in a gated courtyard surrounded by a walled garden, now used as a cut flower garden. The grounds were originally part of Trafalgar Park, which was gifted to Lord Nelson following the Battle of Trafalgar, and some of his descendants lie within Standlynch Chapel, nestled next to the cottages. Just a 2 minute stroll takes you to the banks of the River Avon, with peaceful riverside walks along the gently flowing water.
